

Rod's Alaskan Guide Service

North Pole, AK 99705

(907) 378-1851

10-Day Fall Grizzly Bear Gear List

In September & October our temperature ranges are usually 0 to 50 degrees. It usually rains half of the days.

Dry Bags: Everything should fit in these 3 dry bags—minus weapon

1 Large Dry Bag--Seal Line 115L Boundry Portage—for boots, sleeping bag, pad, and other large items

2 Medium Dry Bags—Seal Line 30L clear SEE—for clothes and small items

Clothing: (NO COTTON) everything synthetic or fleece--brown, green, or camo color.

Socks, 4-6 pairs—Synthetic blend or smart wool/Darn Tough

Underwear/Boxers, 2 pairs—synthetic

Base layers/thermals, 2 sets—all synthetic

Mid Layer, light weight & heavy weight, 1 set each—synthetic or fleece

Outer layer, 2 pants, 1 jacket—fleece waterproof (quiet) I use Browning Hydro Fleece

Rain Gear

Helly Hansen Impertech Top & Bottom

Clothing Accessories

Camp Shoes, Rubber over-calf boot, Insulated-waterproof hunting boot

Gloves-4 pair: 2 Lightweight, 2 Heavy weight--waterproof

Hats: 1 each: brimmed & stocking hat, neck gaiter

Sleeping bag: synthetic, (NO COTTON OR DOWN) rated to 0 degrees—in waterproof compression sack

I have used the Big Agnes Farwell for years. The pad goes in the bag—you can't roll off the pad.

Sleeping Pad: closed cell Thermarest

MISC: Pocketknife, Leatherman, Binoculars, Hygeine Kit, Chapstick, 100 Baby wipes, Lens cleaning cloth, 5 gun cleaning wipes, 20 day supply of medicine, Headlamp and small flashlight, Book, Water bottle/Nalgene, Waterproof Camera, 50 feet of para cord, spare batteries, range finder

Rifle, synthetic stock, .30-06 or larger with quality scope—variable 3-9 power with 50mm bell

Bow, 50 lb draw minimum, 20-inch arrows minimum, 300 grain total arrow weight minimum

1 box (20rds) ammo/12 arrows—1 flu-flu or judo for grouse harvest

Walking/shooting stick—make sure it is not noisy when walking through woods.

Small day pack

Rod's Alaskan Guide Service

North Pole, AK 99705